CompuGroup Medical announces change in Managing Directors

CompuGroup Medical SE & Co. KGaA (CGM) announced today that Dr. Ulrich Thomé, Managing Director of Ambulatory Information Systems DACH, will be leaving the company in the best mutual agreement to pursue new professional challenges outside of CGM. Dr. Ulrich Thomé joined the company on August 1, 2023, and was appointed Managing Director on November 1, 2023. During this time, he has dedicated his extensive experience in the healthcare sector to provide significant impulses for the further development of CGM's ambulatory information systems in the German-speaking region.

Starting August 1, 2025, Prof. (apl.) Dr. Daniel Gotthardt, CEO of CompuGroup Medical SE & Co. KGaA, will take over as head of the Ambulatory Information Systems DACH (AIS DACH) division until further notice.

Daniel Gotthardt says: “We would like to express our sincere thanks to Uli Thomé for his tireless dedication and his many invaluable contributions during his time with us!
