CompuGroup Medical acquires medical publisher perimed

Koblenz - CompuGroup Medical (CGM), one of the world's leading e-health groups, acquires perimed Fachbuch Verlag Dr. med. Straube GmbH. The Fürth-based company offers patient information sheets for doctors and clinics, for more than 800 treatment paths in printed form, web-based for self-printing or as a fully digital version. Its customers are mainly practicing doctors.

"The perimed products are the perfect complement to our digital anamnesis tool CGM One AmbulApps, which we acquired last year. This is our software suite that enables medical practices to handle the entire patient information and signature process digitally. By continuing perimed's success story together, combined with CGM's strong reach, we are making ourselves independent of third-party providers. We now fully support the entire patient journey with our own products," says Dr. Ulrich Thomé, Managing Director Ambulatory Information Systems DACH at CGM.

With the acquisition of perimed, CGM enters a new business segment for the company as a publisher of medical information. In future, CGM will be able to access the company's own
